

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Franco Ernesto Rubino is a Full Professor of Business Economics and the Director of the Department of Business Science and Law and formerly the Dean of the Faculty of Economics of the University of Calabria. He is the author of various monographies and articles in management and accounting field and has related in numerous workshops and conferences.

Maurizio Rija is an Associate Professor of in Business Economics within the Department of Business Science and Law of the University of Calabria. He is the author of several monographies and articles in management and accounting field and has related in workshops and conferences. His main research interests are related to l'auditing and consolidated statement.

Graziella Sicoli is an Assistant Professor in Accounting within the Department of Business Science and Law of University of Calabria. Her main research interests are related to family firms and intellectual capital. On these research themes, she has published books, book chapters, journal articles and presented papers to national and international conferences.

Paolo Tenuta is an Assistant Professor in Accounting within the Department of Business Science and Law of University of Calabria. He is the author of several monographies and articles in management and accounting field and has related in workshops and conferences. His main research interests are related to the public sector, environmental sustainability and management.