

---

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT .....	6
THE LIST OF AUTHORS .....	7
INTRODUCTION .....	8
PROCUREMENT PROCEDURES FOR GOODS AND SERVICES IN HEALTHCARE .....	10
1. Introduction.....	10
2. Health expenditure according to economic classification .....	12
3. Innovative systems in procurement procedures for goods and services.....	15
3.1. The competitive procedure with negotiation .....	17
3.2. Competitive dialogue .....	17
3.3. Innovation partnership .....	18
4. Conclusion.....	19
References.....	20
THE GUARANTEE OF THE RIGHT TO HEALTH AND THE CRIMINAL, CIVIL AND ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE HEALTH CARE PROFESSION IN LAW NO. 24 OF 8 MARCH 2017 (THE SO-CALLED GELLI-BIANCO LAW): LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK AND JURISPRUDENTIAL ANALYSIS .....	22
1. The right to health and the caring relationship between the patient and health professionals .....	22
2. Health care liability: Historical, systematic, and reconstructive outline.....	31
3. The criminal liability of the health profession.....	34
4. The civil liability of the healthcare facility and the healthcare professional .....	39
5. The compulsory attempt at conciliation in medical malpractice disputes.....	42
6. Administrative liability action against the health profession.....	45
7. Conclusion.....	47
References.....	49
LOSS OF CHANCE AS ABSTRACT DIMINUTIVE: THE CASE OF MEDICAL LIABILITY .....	54
1. The purposes of the concept of “chance” according to practice: The use of chance as a substitute for other concepts .....	54
2. The lost chance of recovery: The expedient of substituting actual damage for the lost chance.....	57
3. Chance and causation in some foreign decisions, and the correct use of probability .....	58
4. Chance and the all-or-nothing rule.....	60
5. The “all or nothing” in some jurisdictions, and proposals for tempering.....	63
6. Fallacious jurisprudence .....	69
References.....	75
THE PROCESS OF CORPORATIZATION OF THE HEALTHCARE SERVICE IN ITALY .....	80
1. Introduction.....	80
2. Principles and management mechanisms of health reform .....	81
3. The process of corporatization: From public accounting model to economic accounting .....	84
4. Management control: Introductory remarks.....	86
5. Public sector accounting reform.....	88

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND HEALTHCARE: FUTURE PERSPECTIVES	91
1. Introduction.....	91
2. AI, what risks to human health.....	92
3. The “triad” doctor, patient, AI.....	93
4. The application of AI in healthcare: Between benefits and drawbacks.....	96
5. What limits to the use of AI?.....	97
6. The need for algoretics to protect the dignity of the human person.....	100
References.....	102
ADMINISTRATIVE LIABILITY FOR FINANCIAL LOSS OF HEALTH PROFESSIONALS	105
1. Definition and context: The liability of the health professions practitioner from a constitutional perspective.....	105
2. Peculiar elements of administrative liability for financial loss of the health professions practitioner .....	110
3. The settlement of the health administration with the alleged injured party as an element of the action for damages against the professional .....	113
3.1. The discipline contained in Law No. 24 of 8 March 2017 .....	115
3.2. The guidelines .....	117
3.3. The new discipline of administrative liability action against the health professions practitioner: The move away from the compensatory model of Article 28 of the Constitution .....	120
4. The subjective element of gross negligence.....	126
5. The permanent suspension of culpability and the permanence of the concept of culpability in administrative liability.....	128
6. The limits to the exercise of state legislative discretion in the area of the regulation of administrative liability for fiscal damage arising from the safeguarding of the EU budget .....	134
Reference .....	144
HEALTH IN THE PNRR: TOWARDS A NEW AND SUSTAINABLE HOSPITAL	150
1. The health mission in the PNRR and the renewal of the health care system .....	150
2. The structure of Mission 6.....	150
3. Towards a safe and sustainable hospital — the PNRR .....	152
4. Towards a safe and sustainable hospital — the National Supplementary Fund .....	156
5. The reshaping of the PNRR.....	159
HEALTH EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMIC GROWTH: AN INSEPARABLE PAIR	161
1. Introduction.....	161
2. The social-economic and cultural value of the health service.....	162
3. The cohesive effect of the health service: A welfare instrument .....	166
4. Productive investments in healthcare.....	171
5. Health expenditure in Italy .....	174
6. What future for healthcare .....	175
7. Conclusion.....	176
References.....	177

---

HEALTHCARE LIABILITY IN THE CURRENT REGULATORY ENVIRONMENT: THE “CATLIKE” METAMORPHOSIS OF THE NATURE OF THE MEDICAL LIABILITY .....	181
1. The traditional understanding of the nature of medical liability .....	181
2. Towards the accumulation of contractual liability .....	183
3. From the “social contact” theory to overcoming the distinction between obligations of means and result.....	185
4. The “new” regulation of healthcare liability .....	188
5. Conclusion .....	191
References.....	192
EFFECTIVE QUALITY MANAGEMENT: A RESPONSE TO THE CHALLENGES OF HEALTH MOBILITY .....	197
1. Introduction.....	197
2. Quality in the health sector .....	198
3. Total quality management .....	201
4. Quality assessment strategy in health care: PDCA and PDSA .....	203
5. The three phases of quality management .....	205
6. Conclusions .....	208
References.....	208