Corporate Ownership and Control: International Trends (EURO 92*)

ISBN: 978-617-7309-06-1

Edited by: Alexander N. Kostyuk, Marco Tutino, Stefan Prigge

Number of pages: 168

Published: 2019

Cover: hardcover

Synopsis: The book "Corporate Ownership and Control: International Trends" examines the corporate governance systems in nine countries (the USA, Italy, Spain, Turkey, New Zealand, China, Brazil, India, Nigeria) with particular emphasis on corporate ownership and control issues. This book picks up several very important issues related to corporate governance. Is corporate ownership and control still nationally driven issue or not? What sort of corporate governance regulation is more effective – soft or strict? Does family ownership produce a new model for corporate ownership and control? Is corporate law able to account all those national peculiarities of corporate ownership and control on one side, and respect the worldwide best practices in corporate governance on another side?

Challenges and Opportunities in Italian Corporate Governance (EURO 98*)

(currently available for pre-order)

The main purpose of this book is to analyze the Italian corporate governance from a different perspective (accounting, management, finance, law), also making comparisons with international contexts. Therefore, it is useful to show and identify best practices for the Italian firms in this new scenario and updating them, as to tackle the new challenges and to seize the opportunities raised by the evolution of capital markets and corporate practices. This book is a concise and authoritative guide to researchers and professionals and it wants to offer many ideas for discussion, focusing on some more general issues, related to the role that corporate governance can play for the purposes of company and society. It includes relevant theoretical frameworks and the latest empirical research findings in the area.

The book is edited by Salvatore Esposito De Falco (Sapienza University of Rome), Federico Alvino (Parthenope University of Naples), Nicola Cucari (University of Salerno), Luigi Lepore (Parthenope University of Naples).
